VOLUME CVII.--NO. 205. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 25, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the little book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful, habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English.

Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HEROIC RESCUES.

During a severe northeast storm which prevailed yesterday along the New Jersey coast, one person was drowned and seven others had narrow escapes from death in the waves at Atlantic City. The drowned man was Louis Simpkins, formerly of Philadelphia. He and two companions were on a fishing trip in a launch. Off Brigantine City they were caught in a whirlpool caused by cross currents and the storm. In trying to avoid a big wave Simpkins lost his balance and fell into the sea. Despite their danger, Simpkins' companions made a brave effort to pick him up, but before they were able to do this he sank and was drowned. As the men were about to leave the scene his body came to the surface and they managed to drag it into the launch.

Shortly after this about five young men who went to Atlantic City in the sloop yacht Virginia from Island Heights left the Inlet for the return trip up the coast. Professional yachtmen tried to persuade them not to attempt to go to sea, but they did not heed the warning, and sailed away. In making a long tack toward Brigantine Beach the yacht was carried on the dangerous bar outside the Inlet.

The mast shapped off and the boat began pounding on the sand. The captain of a large yacht saw the accident, but having on board a number of passengers, he did not care to endanger their lives by going too near the bar.

While the five men were climbing to their craft, momentarily expecting to be washed to their death, a hero in the person of John Johnson, a Swedish fisherman, went to the rescue in a frail gasoline launch. He did not falter in the face of the storm, and after a hard struggle, in which his little boat was tossed about by the waves, he managed to get along side the Virginia and took the five men off.

The rescued men rewarded Johnson handsomely.

Later in the afternoon Thomas and Howard Butler, sons of Congressman Butler, of Pennsylvania, were rescued from drowning by the government lifesaving crew, after their little boat had been overturned in a heavy sea off Longport. Both swam to the capsized craft but were being carried out to sea in the strong current, when their calls for help were heard by the life-savers. They were much exhausted when rescued.

Train Plunges Into the River.

A dispatch from Bristol, Va., says: As a result of a washout, a freight train on the Virginia and Southwestern Railroad ran off a trestle at Moccasin river at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, the engine and eight cars loaded with coal plunging into the river, killing a brakeman and a fireman and seriously injuring another.

The train was running at a high rate of speed when it struck the trestle across Moccasin river. It was very dark, and the engineer and fireman did not see the danger until they were within fifteen feet of the trestle.

The brakeman and fireman were caught in the wreck and their bodies pinioned under the cars in the water, and were not reached by the wrecking crew until yesterday afternoon.

The river was very high, but as the trestle had stood against water much higher than it was yesterday morning, the engineer did not think there was any danger, and was running probably thirty or forty miles an hour when he struck the weakened trestle.

The engineer was severely injured, but managed to keep above the water, and floated down the river a considerable distance until he succeeded in reaching the shore. The property loss is heavy.

Excitement at a Bank.

Sixty Chicago policemen were overwhelmed yesterday by a mad rush of men and women who were determined to get the first money paid out of the vaults of the ruined Milwaukee Avenue State Bank. Receiver Fetzer had made arrangements to pay 20 per cent to 5,000 of the 22,000 depositors, and everybody was anxious to be among the 5,000.

At daybreak the crowds commenced to gather around the bank, and by 8 o'clock the bank was surrounded by 5,000 people. Sixty policemen had been sent to the bank, but they were unable to handle the crowd, the greater part of which was unable to understand the English language. Forty more officers were finally sent to the bank, and order was even then restored with difficulty.

It seemed impossible to make the depositors comprehend that although only 5,000 were to be paid yesterday, the others would be paid just as much within the next few days. At one time the crowd threatened to fairly storm the bank, as, waving their pass books in the air, they rushed for the doors, shouting in Bohemian, Polish, Norwegian and Italian.

The receiver was all day paying the 5,000, and will pay as many more today.

Bucket Shops Shaken.

The recent bull market in New York, which swept the exchangeless brokerage concern of M. J. Sage & Co. to the wall, has jolted the bucket shop industry harder than the combined yelps of all the muck rakers in creation. There is not one of these affairs in and around New York that was not hit, and hit hard, during the upward tendency in the market. Wall street was kept interested all day yesterday with reports telling of the tottering condition that many of the exchangeless concerns were in. It was stated on the highest kind of authority that in the very near future and very likely today, will come the announcement of the liquidation of probably the largest concern around New York. This firm is not going to the wall. The man behind it has too much money. He has been stung rather severely lately and has decided to close up shop. This concern has been doing a much larger business than did Sage & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 Kingstreet.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 25, 1906.

DISORDERLY proceedings, murder and robbery continue in many places in Russia. The peasants of the village of Kamenka yesterday seized four men suspected of setting fire to farmhouses and barns, and lynched two of them and beat the others almost to death. The mail coach from Yalta to Simferopol was held up yesterday. One man was killed and two were wounded, but the would-be robbers were beaten off. The superintendent of a factory at Ivanovovoznesensk, belonging to M. Sahuninsky, a member of the Council of the Empire, was waylaid and robbed of $5,000 yesterday. Robberies by armed men and murders have become so frequent at Odessa that the citizens have petitioned the Governor General to double the police force and compel every proprietor of a house to maintain three instead of one armed porter. A band of revolutionists on Thursday night attacked the railroad station at Otwock, near Warsaw, shot and killed an employe and escaped with $400. A meeting of factory hands of the Bakmut district last night was dispersed by Cossacks, who fired upon the working people, killing or wounding several of them. In the crowded waiting room of the railroad station at Smiela, in the Cherkassy district of Kieff province, five men, armed with revolvers, attacked the stationmaster yesterday. During the disturbance three bombs were exploded, and a number of persons were injured, but not fatally. The brigands got off with $850. At Litovski the casbier of the Police Department was surrounded by men, who threw tobacco in his eyes and robbed him of $500. The above are but a few of the crimes which are occurring daily. The latest addition to the horrors in the Czar's realms is the assassination of Premier Stolypin, which occurred today.

A COTEMPORARY calls attention to what it terms the recrudescence of trouble between Greece and Bulgaria It follows hard upon trouble between Greece and Roumania, and that in turn has followed close after trouble between Bulgaria and Roumania, while to occupy the few brief intervals in these tripartite embroilments there have been troubles between Servia and Bulgaria, between Hungary and Servia, between Roumania and Hungary and between Greece and Turkey, while Macedonians of various stocks and the incorrigible Albanians have been in chronic states of effervescence. These congeries of empires, kingdoms and principalities where fragments of forgotten peoples dwell in and around the rugged peninsula of the Balkans have been aptly termed the lumber room of Europe. They are composed of Mahometans, Jews, Roman Catholics, Greek Catholics of at least three separate types, Protestants, Armenians and others, and there are two Roman peoples, the Roumanians and the Zinzars or Kutzo-Wallachs; four Slavic peoples, the Russians, the Serbs, the Croats and the Bulgars; the Illyrians or Albanians, the Magyars, the Greeks, the Germans and the Osmanli Turks. Now these inextricably intemingled would present a sufficiently perplexing medley if they were all amiably disposed and desirous of living in harmony. But what shall we say of it when no two are agreed, but every one regards every other as an actual or potential foe, and nearly every one cherishes some high historical ambition tinctured with intolerant pride? Not one is willing to accept the rule to another. Not one is able by force to dominate the others. Not one can separate itself from all the others. The picture is one which has for many years perplexed diplomats and will doubtless continue to do so.

THE CITY OF BAGDAD is an interesting place to all members of the human race who have read "The Arabian Nights' Entertainment." The city sprang into existence at the time Mahomet flourished, and was the scene of many of the wonderful transactions related by Scherazade, the most enchanting of all story-tellers. The book has been the classic for the young, and there is hardly a man or woman who has read the thrilling adventures of the oriental princes and princesses who have not relished the book later on in life. It may prove interesting to such to learn that Bagdad is to be modernized and a transformation akin to any recorded in the "Arabian Nights" may yet be wrought around the tombs of Haroun and his consort Zobeide. Railroads, electricity and other modern conveniences are to be introduced. When flying machines shall have been perfected the East Indiaman's wooden horse will be rivalled, while the advent of electricity will bring to the minds of the orientale the enchanted fairy paradises so extravagantly described by the royal story-teller. The hideous geni, however, who is represented as sailing through the air with princesses in his arms, will not be in evidence, although the more pleasant dreams will be realized.

THERE HAVE been three lynchings in South Carolina during the past ten days. This is said to beat the record.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 25

The Japanese government is now in a position to get at first hand its information of the killing of Japanese poachers by employees of the United States at the seal island of St. Paul, Alaska, if it so desires. One of the sealing schooners that was engaged in the raid has returned home and is now in a Japanese port with several of its crew and two of its boats missing The State Department today received a dispatch from Ambassador Wright at Tokio forwarding a report from Edward J. King, the American consular agent at Hakedate, which says that the Japanese sealing schooner Daini Taysi, which was at St. Paul at the time of the killing of the seal poachers, has arrived at Akishi short a number of its crew and two boats. The dispatch says that she arrived on the 14th inst. This report is important in two particulars. In the first place it definitely establishes the fact that the ships engaged in the sealing raid were actually Japanese vessels and not American or Canadian ships fitted out with Japanese crews and sailing under the Japanese flag merely for the purpose of evading the American and British sealing regulations. Perhaps the more important point is, however, contained in the date of the arrival of the Daini Taysi at her home point—the 14th inst. It is supposed by the authorities here that undoubtedly as soon as she arrived in Japanese waters her master was closely examined with regard to the incident at St. Paul in which she was one of the principal figures. Evidently, officials here say, the report of the captain must have put a different interpretation upon the incident than that received from the United States, for only yesterday the Japanese government commissioned Mr. Hanihara, a member of the staff of the embassy in this city, to proceed to Alaska and investigate the entire affairs. The inference is drawn, therefore, that the Japanese government, acting upon the information received from the captain of the Daini Taysi, proposes to energetically protest against the killing of its subjects, make claim for damages and reparation, and vigorously contest the trial of the twelve Japanese prisoners who are now awaiting trial at Valdez.

In an opinion rendered today the Interstate Commerce Commission held that the rates on lumber from Dalton, Ga., to points in Virginia on the Southern Railway and the Norfolk and Western lines charged the Farrar Lumber Company were excessive, unreasonable and unjust, and that the rates should not exceed the old rates in force in 1901. The commission further held, however, that there had been no violation of the long and short-haul clause of the law.

Churches Struck By Lightning.

An alarming incident occurred during divine service at Wookey Church, near Wells. There was a heavy thunderstorm and a fireball struck a pinnacle, splitting it in two, and passed through the roof. Upon coming in contact with the stone flooring of the centre aisle there were a number of explosions resembling the discharge of cannon, and several persons were slightly injured about the legs. Members of the congregation rushed for the doors, and several women fainted, but after calm had been restored the worshipers returned, at the appeal of the vicar, and prayers were offered expressing thanks for their miraculous escape. During morning service St. Peter's Church, Yarmouth, was struck by lightning and the top of the flagstaff fell from the tower into the road below. The flagstaff was scored in rings by the lightning down to its base, whence by the conductor the lightning passed to the earth. The incident caused some alarm to the congregation.—[London Globe.

Lynching Prevented.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 25 —The presence of the company of militia at the jail at Decatur, Fulton county, last night, sent by Governor Terrell, was the only thing that prevented the lynching of the negro who is held on suspicion of being the assailant of the Misses Lawrence. The sheriff asked for help, which was promptly furnished. The soldiers remained on guard at the jail all night and the mob dispersed. A report is in circulation that last night an unknown negro made an attack upon a white girl eighteen years old, near Decatur, thus adding to the terror felt by the people.

Immediately after the killing he took to the deep forest of Fayette county heavily armed, stating that he would not be taken alive. A posse was armed and started after him. Four hours afterward he was surrounded in a cave six miles from the scene of the crime and surrendered,

The health of the Shah of Persia, according to advices from Teheran, is the subject of the gravest alarm, The Persian ruler was greatly enfeebled by his recent apoplectic stroke, and late events have aggravated his malady. In spite, however of the serious nature of the crisis through which Persia is now passing, diplomatic circles are convinced that the demise of the Shah will not be accompanied by a serious convulsion in the umpire, as Great Britian and Russia are acting in harmony to preserve order in Persia, and their influence will have great weight with the contending factions.

Probable Murder of an Heir.

The search for the missing heir to valuable property in Cincinnati and $5,000 in cash has resulted in the recovery of a human skull from the cabinet of Dr. O. F. Richter, at Dry Creek, Va., as the probable remains of the person wanted. The missing heir is August Krusemeir, a veteran of the civil war, who was an inmate of the National Soldiers' Home at Washington until 1889, when he left the institution to go to Cincinnati and make his home with his father, Conrad Krusemeier. He left the train at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and the last seen of him he was walking up Kates Mountain with a stranger. The father made every effort to locate his son, and before his death made a will leaving him all his property, Attorney Frank Kunkel, anxious to settle the estate, went to Virginia in search of the missing man. He learned that the skeleton of an unknown man was found four years ago in the vicinity where Krusemeir was last seen. The skull was found in the possession of Dr. Richter. Attorney Kunkel informed Probate Judge Malsbury yesterday of his discovery, and was requested to return to Virginia and try to locate the mountaineers who found the skeleton, to determine positively, if possible, if the skull is that of the missing man. Krusemeier was married. His wife and children moved to Chicago several years ago.

Prussian Pakeries and Slaughter Houses

The medical department of Prussia has issued a report on the sanitary condition of the Prussian bakeries and slaughterhouses, to which the Berlin newspapers are given sensational prominence, one of them using the caption: "America in Prussia." The report sets forth that many of the butchering establishments were found in a very unclean condition. Some of them were located in dark cellars, where cleanliness was impossible, and others had no facilities for the employes to wash themselves. The government inspectors found particularly objectionable conditions in the bakeries. In one town boys kneaded the dough with their feet and one bakery was occupied by cats and hens. In another town a baker's oven served ad interim as a goose pen. In many bakeries were found in proximity to the unsanitary appurtenances of the house. One baker admitted that his floor and vats were scrubbed only once a year.

Movement for Cheaper Books.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 25.—The Board of Education adopted text books last night for the next five years after a session lasting nine hours. The result showed that Superintendent W. H. Elson had won his fight for cheaper books against the book trust. With the exception of two books, every book that has been considered was offered at a price as low as made anywhere, in the country on either city or state contract by the various book companies. On many books that are retained in the school considerably lower prices were secured than heretofore. On the history 25 cents a book was saved; grammer, 5 cents; speller 4 cents; arithmethic about 10 cents;. The saving on other books was in the same proportion.

Virginia News.

Twenty dollars a ton is what ice is selling for at Virginia Beach and other nearby resorts, and purchasers are allowed to buy it in only small quantities at that. It is said that a scarcity of ice has caused the stiff advance in price, but there seems to be plenty of it in Norfolk and there prices have not gone up.

The girl is about 11 years of age.

Democratic State Chairman Ellyson believes that Virginia will have a solid democratic delegation in Congress when the next Congress meets. He is sure of Saunders' victory in the Fifth district, and as to the Ninth (the most doubtful in the State), he said yesterday: "I really believe we are going to carry the Ninth district. I attended the convention at Bristol and I have never seen such enthusiasm, such concert of action, such zeal and harmony in all my life The people of that district are in earnest, and they say they will carry the district. I believe that they will, for they are getting together and organizing as they have not done for a long time."

Grave Conditions in Cuba.

The steamship Gussie, which arrived at Tampa, Fla., yesterday, from Havana was loaded to full capacity with tobacco, which is being rushed out of the island by importers.

Information received through private sources by this steamer state that President Palma is virtually a prisoner in the palace at Havana, and that he has not left it for a week.

Indications are that the situation on the island is much worse than is known to the outside world.

The revolution has also extended into Santa Clara province and has broken out in Matanzas.

It is reported that an encounter has taken place at San Juan Hill between Lieutenant Azcuy and insurgents, with the tide in favor of the latter. Many people are said to be disappearing at Guanajay, who are believed to be joining the insurgents.

Efforts are being made to trace an American woman here, in whose rooms in the Hotel Leel, at Havana, the plot to assassinate President Palma is said to have been concocted

Apportionment of the Land.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—Four million acres of land included in the imperial domains, have been placed at the disposal of the peasant land bank for distribution among the needy peasants to satisfy their land hunger, which is regarded as being at the bottom of many of the agrarian disturbances which have occurred throughout Russia. With this imperial allotment of lands, for the peasants, a total of 9,000,000 acres has now been set aside for their use.

By order of the Czar, the allotment of imperial domains is to be among the poorest of Russia's peasants. The most needy are to be taken care of first under the ruler's plan. During the last eight months land owners have been selling land to the peasants bank for distribution among the peasants. Altogether 5,000,000 acres have thus been offered for the peasants, under the scheme of the government. The land owners have taken five per cent. bonds issued by the bank in payment for their land and the peasants have been permitted to buy in the property at a low figure.

Score Church Fairs.

Dr. Laird, of West Chester, presiding officer at the Pennsylvania Sunday School Assembly at Pottstown, Pa., gave church fairs and suppers a hard whack Thursday by declaring that any church habitually holding them makes a great mistake. "When in need of money," he declared, "go to God in prayer and then give money." Dr. A. B. Van Ormer added some more hot shot by saying that the church should be used for its legitimate purposes and not for light entertainments and socials. "There is too much of a tendency," he added, "to put churches on a par with secret societies."

ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER STOLYPIN.

St Petersburg, Aug. 25.—A bomb was thrown at Premier Stolypin today in his own house, wounding the official so that it is not believed he can recover.

The outrage occurred during the usual Saturday reception held by the Premier at his home on Apothecary's Island. M. Stolypin was badly wounded and his body was so badly torn that the first report sent out was that he was dead.

Soldiers surrounded the house and admission was denied to everyone, so that it was some time before the people knew that the Premier was not dead.

The explosion of the bomb set fire to the Premier's house, causing considerable damage. It is stated that M. Stolypin's body was almost blown to pieces. The physicians in attendance give no hope for his recovery. Three weeks ago M. Stolypin received a letter from revolutionists containing a death threat. He was told he would be killed for assisting in restoring the reactionary regime. Since that time the Premier had remained indoors most of the time. Detectives surrounded the house and he was always accompanied by secret service men when it was necessary for him to venture forth.

It is impossible to tell what effect the attempted assassination of the head of the cabinet will have upon the Czar, whether he will be frightened into giving the people desired reforms or will resort to even more repressive measures to defeat the terrorists. The Premier for some time had been out of the confidence of the monarch, who only retained him because of the difficulty in selecting a successor.

Bombs were thrown at the premier by two officers attending the reception. M. Stolypin's three year old son and General Zamiahine were killed and many of the persons attending the reception were badly wounded.

Guards of soldiers were thrown about the house following the bomb throwing and no one has been permitted to enter and there is confusion in regard to M. Stolypin's condition.

A later dispatch says that the Premier escaped injury.

M. Stolypin, the Russian premier, has been in public life in the Czar's empire for years. The most important office held until he entered the Cabinet, was that of Governor of Saratoff. An attempt was made to assassinate him while he held that position, on August 4, 1905.

M. Stolypin was made Minister of the Interior in the Goremykin Cabinet appointed May 8 He was the central figure in one of the stormiest scenes in the brief existence of the douma. In trying to reply to interpellations from the douma as to why relief had not been afforded to the peasants, in severa. famine stricken districts, as charged, because the inhabitants had taken part in agrarian disturbances, he was hissed and hooted in the chamber and forced to stop talking. Calls of "liar" and "assassin," followed him as he left the chamber. He was appointed Premier to succeed Goremykin on July 23.

THE REVOLUTION IN CUBA.

Havana, Cuba, Aug. 25.—All trace of the revolutionary army under Col. Pino Guerrera has been lost temporarily. With a force of insurgents variously estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000 men, he is moving somewhere in the province of Pinar Del Rio, but the government officials are without information as to his exact location.

Telegraphic communication beyond Pinar del Rio City has been interrupted, and this is preventing the government from getting track of its enemy.

Guerrera's secret movements are causing the greatest alarm in Havana, and the city of Pinar del Rio, as well. That his ultimate objective is the capture of the provincial capital near which he has been operating is conceded. The defenders of the city do not know in which direction to look for his attack, and for that reason are more than alarmed.

Since leaving San Louis and San Juan de Martinez yesterday Guerrera's movements have been carefully concealed. He is supposed to have marched on Guane. This movement was promptly hailed by the government as a retreat. The lack of further information from the insurgent leader, however, has aroused other feeling than that of rejoicing among the defenders of Pinar del Rio City.

Havana province is almost cleared of insurgents. The killing of General Bandera has caused most of the revolutionists to flee and they are returning to their homes. The work of clearing this province was advanced yesterday when a detachment of rurales defeated a band of insurgents near San Antonio de Los Banos, killing two of the latter, and scattering the band.

In Santa Clara province the first engagement has resulted in a victory for the loyalists. Rural Guards encountered the force of Manuel Gonzale, near Colon, and scattered them. Some arms and ammunition were captured.

The insurgents, however, won a victory which counteracts the government successes. The force of Col. Estrampe was defeated by insurgents near Guines and driven from the field. The estimates of casualties among the loyalists vary from three to nine killed, with several wounded.

Finances are already beginning to worry the authorities. The government has been put to an extra expense of nearly $300,000, already in its military operations. With the saddling of the additional cost of supporting 10,000 men in the field, whose pay alone will be $20,000 a day, the strain is bound to prove too much in a very short while.

A Protest from England.

London, Aug. 25.—England is at the front today with a howl against President Roosevelt's radical spelling reform. While there is some objection to the vivisection of the mother tongue, as well as considerable praise of the reform, the complaint voiced on all sides of the land is that the President acted too suddenly and without taking his cousin John Bull into consultation, notwithstanding the fact that it was the latter who contributed the language that is being operated upon. The strenuous tactics of the American President in knocking out with one punch the very backbone of the language, is too much for conservative Englishmen, who say that he has violated all the traditions and sacred history of the language. They point to the slow evolution of the language to its present form and say that it is entitled to more feeling treatment. Some of the newspapers deal with the subject humorously and poke fun at the President in unveiled language. The papers that take the matter as worthy of serious consideration express little sympathy with what they term the "Carnegie jargon." The opinion is even expressed that scholarly and cultured Americans will refuse to accept the proposed changes.

Woman Moonshiner Arrested.

Huntington, W. Va, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Alvir Kincaid, whose wealth is estimated to be $75,000, an old church worker and a leader of the ladies' aid society of her church, has been arrested at Buck, a small town in this State, accused of violation of the internal revenue laws. She was, as the investigation has shown, one of the biggest moonshiners in this section, and worked her still in a cave over which her residence was erected. The cave had an outlet a half mile away, where the liquor was disposed of. Her home was built on the mountain side overlooking the litle village of Buck and she was one of the most respected persons of that vicinity. For eighteen years she has been noted for her church work, and has contributed liberally to all religious causes. Her arrest was the result of her betrayal by one of the employes of the still, who had become infatuated with her.

Want French Aid.

Paris, Aug. 25.—Emissaries of the Cuban revolution are busy trying to engage French sympathy for their cause, declaring that the insurrection in the island is really due to the Palma government's supine attitute toward the continual interference of America in Cuban affairs. The emissaries declare that Cuba has been subjected to a thinly veiled American tyranny, making liberty a farce and practically duplicating the conditions which existed in Cuba during Spain's rule there.

Ex-Minister Arrested.

Paris, Aug. 25 —Alexander Greger, a Russian councilor of state and formerly minister plenipotentiary, was arrested at Brest yesterday on a charge of stealing a diamond ring valued at $12,000 from the Countess du Porzic at the chateau of Kerstears, in Brittany, where M. Greger and his wife, who is of American birth, were the guests of the Count and Countess du Porzic. Alexander Greger is well known in Paris, and some years ago was attached to the Russian Legation at Washington. The Countess du Porzic had placed the ring, with some other jewels, on a piano in the salon of the chateau, the only persons present at the time being the Gregers and a servant. A police detective subsequently discovered the ring concealed in M Greger's bottle of tooth powder. The Gregers live in luxurious apartments in the Rue Pierre Charron, in Paris. They were formerly wealthy, but in the last few months are said to have been financially embarrassed because of the loss of property in Russia. Greger declares he is innocent of theft, saying that he must have put the ring in the tooth powder in a moment of inadvertence. His wife, when the ring was discovered, went into hysterics, exclaiming, "I, too, am innocent." M. Greger is kept in custody.

Lost $17,000 at Poker.

Williamsport, Pa., August 25 — Pierce Schug, the former Hughesville clubman and prominent contractor, who early this week was arrested on a charge of procuring money under false pretenses and held in $1,000 bail, was arrested here Thursday night again on a similar charge by another party, and before a Hughesville justice furnished an additional $800 bail. This arrest discloses a statement made by Schug upon his return from the West two weeks ago, in which he relates a sensational loss of $17,000 in a game of poker in Chicago. Before leaving Hughesville he borrowed substantial sums of money from his friends, ostensibly to invest in some Western venture. He had $27,000 when he left two months ago, and when he got back home the other day he had but $6,000 left. A meeting of his creditors, looking toward bankruptcy proceedings, was held, at which Schug declared that in a single game of poker, into which he was inveigled by Chicago sharpers, he lost $17,000. It was the day following the bankruptcy meeting that Schug's first arrest was made.

Desperate Street Fight.

Nuremburg, Germany, Aug. 25—Two hundred persons were wounded, some of them mortally, in a desperate street fight which occurred between soldiers and police and employees of the automobile works here who have been on a strike. It was necessary for a battalion of infantry to charge the strikers with fixed bayonets before the mob was dispersed. Fully 200 persons fell in the charge. Several of the soldiers were also hurt by the missiles thrown at them. Strikers last night gathered about the automobile works and attempted to storm the place. They fought the police who tried to stop them, using bottles, stones and clubs on the officials. When the police drew their swords the strikers resorted to the use of knives. Some who were armed used their revolvers. A battalion of infantry was then called out and dispersed the crowd by a bayonet charge.

Rescued from Drowning.

Greenport, Long Island, Aug. 25 — J S. Templeton, of Chicago, a Mrs. Arundel of the same city and Mrs. Gallent, wife of a New York physician, narrowly escaped drowning yesterday morning on Peconic Bay, They were out sailing in a small boat, and when off this place the boat was upset by a squall. All were dumped into the bay. Mr. Templeton dived under the capsized boat and released the ballast, and this this kept the boat from sinking. He assisted the women to the keel and made them hang on. Police Captain Chauncey D. Reeve witnessed the upset and gave the alarm, and Paul Schaible and Thomas Small put off and brought the party ashore. All were badly overcome by cold and fright, but recovered within a short time.

Killed Over a Woman.

Hartford, Aug. 25.—Joseph Prestia was shot to death on Front street yesterday morning by Joseph Ferrainola, in a dispute over a woman. Both men worked as barbers on the East Side. The bullet entered Prestia's lung, and he dropped dead while chasing his slayer. Ferrainola was arrested a few minutes after the crime and arranged on a charge of murder in the first degree. He admitted having fired the shot, but the court ordered a plea of not guilty entered and continued the case until Tuesday without bond. The police are also holding a man named Whato Lotos, on the charge of aiding and abetting the crime, alleging that he hid the revolver after the shooting.

Rotterdam, Aug. 25.—The Holland America line steamship New Amsterdam while en route here from New York, poked her nose in a mud bank near Maaslius, ten miles west of Rotterdam, last night. Her passengers were brought here on steamers and tugs. This morning the New Amsterdam floated at high tide, and has arrived at her pier. Apparently she has sustained no damage.

The Gans-Nelson Fight.

Goldfield, Nev. Aug. 25.—A record breaking crowd will witness the Gans-Nelson fight on Labor Day. Over $15,000 worth of seats have been sold in Goldfield and Tonopah alone. The advance guard of spectators is growing larger daily, and by tomorrow the town will be filled to overflowing. Gans and Nelson are about on edge and both are under weight. Nelson is doing no more road work, but keeps up his gymnasium routine. The Dane is within a few ounces of 131 pounds. The Baltimore negro rules a strong favorite over Nelson at 10 to 7, and many believe that 2 to 1 on the champion will be the ringside figures. Billy Nolan, it is said, has $10,000 to wager on his man, but is waiting for the odds to go to 2 to 1.

Relaying Tracks.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 25.—The Cleveland Electric Company this morning began relaying its tracks in Fulton street in the same place the tracks were torn up by Mayor Tom L. Johnson and the city government recently. This will probably block the Municipal Traction Company in its efforts to reach the central part of the city.

A Decided Relief.

The depressing weather which had prevailed in this vicinity for several weeks passed away yesterday, affording the greatest relief to man and beast, which had been suffering from the high temperature and humid conditions At 8 o'clock yesterday the humidity stood at 87, and increased to 96 at 2 p. m. The temperature experienced a similar rise, and reached the limit at 1 o'clock, when the official thermometer of the Weather Bureau told that it was 88 degrees. The wind later blew fresh from the northeast, and in a short time the temperature was falling rapidly. Black clouds had in the meantime gathered in the northeast from which lightning was flashing with an almost incessant roar of thunder. There was no storm, however, in Alexandria, although there was a copious fall of rain. The downpour in Washington, however, and north and east of that city was very heavy, and certain portions of Maryland were flooded. Bridges were washed away, roadways were undermined, telegraph and telephone poles are down, and wires cut out. Henson branch and Oxon branch, a short distance northeast of this city, were on a rampage. Bursting their bounds, the water overflowed their banks, and paths of destruction now lie in their wake. Smaller streams added to the havoc, and it is estimated that about fifteen bridges and one stone culvert have been washed away, along with the bridge at Forest Lake Cemetery, on the Suitland road. The destruction of these bridges will mean a loss of about $15,000 to Prince George's county. That section of Maryland is populated for the most part by small farmers and hucksters, who dispose of their products in the Washington markets. Hardly a vestige of the well-ordered gardens was left by the storm, and the farmers will lose the results of almost a year's work. Dairymen were also heavy losers Several cases were reported in which live stock was washed down the streams and have not been heard from since. The water clogged in the slots between the street car tracks in Washington, and not a wheel turned on many of the principal lines for more than an hour. Communication between this city and Washington by electric trains was brought to a complete standstill.

The weather has been cloudy and cool today.

Still Shrouded in Mystery.

Mystery surrounds the case of Jackson Boney, colored, who was found dead with a bullet hole through his body, in a buggy on Long Bridge late Thursday night. Annie Green, the negress who was arrested by Washington police officers after the body of Boney was found, has been turned over to the authorities of Alexandria county and is now locked up in jail. An inquest was held over the body by the county authorities late yesterday afternoon. The Green woman, according to Prosecuting-Attorney Crandall Mackey, has told several contradictory stories regarding what she knows about the affair. The Green woman was arrested soon after the police arrived at the bridge. She came from the Virginia side and when stopped by the officers attempted to dodge past them. At first she denied any knowledge of the affair, saying she was on her way home from work in Virginia. Later she acknowledged that she had been with Boney. According to her story, she and Boney met Thursday night about 8:30 o'clock at the corner of Four-and-a-Half and C streets southwest, and he invited her to go over to an eating house in Alexandria county with him to collect some money. When they arrived at the eating house, she says, it was closed, and they decided to come back to the city. She said that when they had gone a short distance they were accosted by a very dark negro, who ordered her at the point of a revolver to get out of the buggy. He led her into the woods close by, she said and there assaulted her. Then the man, she said, pointed out the way to Long Bridge, and told her to go. She says she did not hear any shots.

Miss Ruth Anita Thorne, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thorne, died yesterday morning at the home of her parents, "The Oaks," Falls Church, of typhoid-pneumonia, after an illness of only three weeks. She was in the nineteenth year of her age.

Return of the Firemen.

A large number of people gathered on King street last night to witness the return of the Alexandria firemen from Richmond where they have been attending the annual convention of the Virginia State Firemen's Association. Yesterday evening telegrams were received stating that they would arrive in the city shortly after 8 o'clock, but when about 200 people had assembled at the union depot it was learned that there had been a washout near Ashland and that the train conveying the firemen was delayed several hours. Upon receiving this information nearly every one left for home, but a number remained until the train arrived at 2:45 o'clock this morning. The firemen then proceeded down King street to the Columbia engine house, where a light lunch was served. The "stay-at-homes" had arranged for a big reception and parade, but after learning of the lateness of the train their plans had to be changed. The members of the different companies speak very highly of the manner in which they were treated while in Richmond and are only sorry that their trip was not extended longer. Many of them will regale their friends with many pleasant incidents which they witnessed while in Richmond.

The ringing of the Columbia bell at 12 o'clock today was in honor of that company winning second prize at Richmond. The first prize went to Phoebus. Under the association rules prizes are awarded to the two companies carrying the largest number of members. The judges in deciding this contest stated that although the Columbia made the best appearance in line, the Phoebus company had the largest number of men in line and awarded the first prize to that company.

Mr. Elmer Norris, formerly of this city, but now of Richmond, today sent a telegram to the Columbia congratulating them upon winning second prize.

An immense crowd witnessed the State firemen's hosereel contests for the State championship in Richmond yesterday morning. Six companies were entered for the hose races. George Alexander, of Covington, immediately after crossing the finish line with his team, staggered to the sidewalk and fell unconscious He recovered under medical care. The first race, a free-for-all, was contested by six companies. Lexington won in 29 3-4 seconds; Covington company, No. 1, was second, in 31 3-4 seconds. Other companies competing were Woodstock, Covington, No. 2; Strasburg and Newport News The second race, open only to association companies, was won by Strasburg in 0:29 3 4. Lexington second in 0:30, and Woodstock third in 0:31. Newport News and the Covington companies also ran.

Other prizes were awarded as follows: Largest and best uniformed company, Phoebus, No. 1; next largest and best uniformed, Columbia, No. 4, Alexandria; finest uniformed band, Naval Gun Factory Band, Washington; second best uniformed band, Artillery Band, of Fort Monroe.

Probable Increase in Wages

It is probable that a slight increase in wages will be granted by the Southern Railway to its machinists in Alexandria, Richmond, Manchester, Salisbury and Atlanta before the conclusion of the conference between General Manager Spencer and the general committee representing the machinists, which has been going on for several days in Washington. The meeting is held according to yearly custom, but this year the contentions on both sides have resulted in a deadlock. The machinists are contending for a reduction of the ten-hour day to nine hours, and an increase of 2½ cents an hour, or 25 cents a day. The company is unwilling to concede the nine-hour day, because a demand for a like concession would be made by other branches of the service; but it is considered likely that the road will grant an increase of 1 cent an hour, or 10 cents a day, increasing the present wage scale of the machinists in the shops mentioned to $3 25 a day.

Charged with Larceny.

When Detective Barbee, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Washington, escorted to the station house Nathan T. Sinn, twenty-three years, wanted in that city on a charge of larceny, the prisoner was accompanied by his bride of a few days. Mrs. Sinn, who was a Miss Mary Davis, of Alexandria, was hardly able to bear up under the strain caused by the arrest of her husband, and she wept as she clung to him. Sinn is charged with the unlawful taking of about $8 belonging to the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company August 12 He was located Thursday at Luna Park, where he was working at the telephone booth, and was arrested and locked up in the station house in this city. When Sinn was arrested he refused, it is said, to go to Washington without first coming to Alexandria. When he was taken here he called for his wife. She insisted on coming here with her husband.

Explosion on Power Launch?

A power launch having two or three persons aboard is alleged to have blown up in the river off Lower Cedar Point Wednesday afternoon. No trace of the launch or of those aboard her has been discovered. According to the story, Miss Winnifred Richmond, who lives near Cedar Point, was seated on the porch of her house overlooking the river Wednesday afternoon. She saw a neat canopy-top launch running up the river, and coming apparently from Colonial Beach. As she watched the boat she saw a flash like an explosion, and a report came across the water. Where the launch had last been seen was a thick body of smoke, and when it drifted away the boat had disappeared and there was no trace of swimming figures in the water.

A Case of Trespass.

At a late hour last night a telephone message was received at the station house stating that two men were on the premises of Garrett & Monroe, on Cameron street, between Royal and Pitt, presumably for the purpose of housebreaking and robbery. Officers Roberts, Lyles and Jones hastened to the store and found Theodore Beach and James Reed on the premises. They were taken in custody and this morning brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court. Reed was sent to jail for 90 days and Beach was fined $25. Should the latter fail to pay the assessment he will also be sent to jail.

Crazed by Religion.

In an excess of religious zeal, following the advent of the Holy Rollers, in southern California, Mrs. Josephine Burton Young, of San Bernardino, yesterday deliberately set herself on fire, hoping by the martyrdom of flames to reach the heavenly throne. The woman had become a religious fanatic, following continuous attendance at these frenzied meetings, and only a few days ago had been ordered confined in the county hospital. She escaped from there in men's clothing, making her way back home. Her daughter saw her drink oil from a lamp, pour more oil over her hair and dress, and when the frightened girl returned with her father they beheld the unfortunate mother writhing in flames. Screaming, she ran through the yard, her agonized cries being succeeded by prayers such as the "Holy Rollers" use. The husband caught her and smothered the flames, but the woman was dying last night, with three hospital nurses working over her.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

Roamed Naked in Woods.

Spayton Parker, of Dunsville, Va., a youth of 16 years, was found on the farm of John Higgins, near New Castle, Del., yesterday, nude. He was covered with blood from numerous cuts and bruises, a result of contact with a barbed-wire fence. Mr. Higgins was startled when the youth ran by him toward a marsh. He called his farm hands, and they succeeded in capturing the fugitive. After being given clothing he told Mr. Higgins that he was from Tappahannock, Va., on the Rappahannock river. He further said that he had come on a barge as far as Delaware City, where he was put off. He was examined by Dr. Belville, of Delaware City, and Dr. Wertenbaker, of New Castle, and pronounced insane. He was then committed to the State Hospital at Farnhurst. It is supposed he was affected by the heat, and his recovery is expected.

He Was in Trouble.

"I was in trouble, but found a way out of it, and I'm a happy man again, since Dr. King's New Life Pills cured me of chronic constipation," says E. W. Goodloe, 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex. Guaranteed satisfactory. Price 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.
